Generally our fees are based on the time taken to complete the work and any other relevant factors specified by the Rules of Conduct and Client Care for Lawyers, which include urgency, the degree of specialised knowledge required, the degree of risk assumed by us in undertaking the services including the value of any property involved, the complexity of the matter, the importance of the matter and the results achieved.

Our Estimate of Costs

6. If you ask and if it is practicable, we will give you an estimate of the cost of the work. The estimate is not a quotation. Any estimate is based on our assessment of the work likely to be required to carry out your instructions, and on the information available to us at the time of the estimate.

How to Keep Your Costs Down

21. There are many things you can do to help keep your costs down. You can:
  - see us before signing anything;
  - make sure you give us all relevant information, papers and instructions;
  - for litigation files, provide a detailed time line (dates of when things have happened) and copies of all relevant documents;
  - do not leave things to the last minute if you can avoid it (urgency will usually increase your costs);
  - respond promptly to requests for further information or payment of anticipated disbursements or do something to help us (if we have to chase you up, it takes extra time, which you are paying for);
  - indicate a willingness to do things we would otherwise have to undertake personally at your cost; e.g. instructing valuers, liaising with Banks etc. Please check with us first though so we can co-ordinate our respective efforts to produce the best result; and
  - we will also try to keep your costs down by delegating some aspects of the work on your file to appropriate staff with lower charge out rates unless you particularly request that only one person attends to all matters.

Who we can accept instructions from etc

  - if you are a couple, we can accept instructions from either of you;
  - if you are a trust, we can accept instructions from any of your trustees or officers;

Trust Account

24. We maintain a Trust Account for all funds which we receive from clients (except monies received for payment of our invoices).
25. If we hold funds on your behalf we will normally deposit them in an interest-bearing deposit with a bank, where reasonable and practicable to do so. We can only do this if you have provided us with the necessary information to fulfil the FATCA (Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act) and CRS (Common Reporting Standard) requirements.
26. We are not responsible for obtaining the best interest rate available or for any loss of interest you suffer as a result of delay in placing your funds in an interest-bearing deposit.
27. We charge a 7.5% administration fee on the gross interest earned on funds and held in an interest-bearing deposit unless we agree otherwise.
28. Withholding tax will be deducted on the interest earned and paid to the IRD. If we have your IRD number you can elect to have withholding tax deducted at your applicable rate. If we do not have your IRD number we are required to deduct it at the default rate (which may be higher than your actual rate).
29. Where you transfer funds to our trust account in a foreign currency, we will convert those funds into New Zealand dollars at the prevailing exchange rate offered by our bank. We are not responsible for seeking or obtaining a better exchange rate.

As part of that process we may require you to provide certain information and verify or certify this information. We may also be required to ask for evidence of your source of funds and wealth.
31. We cannot commence work on your behalf until we have satisfied our obligations to complete due diligence. This is an ongoing process and we may also be required to seek additional information from you as we proceed with any work on your behalf to ensure the information we hold on you remains current.
32. As part of our obligations under the Act, we may be required to report any activity considered suspicious to the New Zealand Police or other Government Agency and we will not advise you of this.

Termination of Legal Services

33. You may terminate our services upon giving us reasonable written notice.
34. We may terminate the retainer if there is good cause, such as:
- you not providing us with instructions in a sufficiently timely manner;
  - Inability or failure to pay our fee on an agreed basis; or
  - except in litigation matters, your adopting against our advice, a course of action which we believe is highly imprudent and may be inconsistent with our fundamental obligations as lawyers.
35. If we terminate the retainer we will give you reasonable notice so that you can arrange alternative representation and we shall give you reasonable assistance to find another lawyer.
36. If our retainer is terminated you must pay us all fees due up to the date of termination and all expenses incurred up to that date.

Privacy of Information

They may be read, copied or interfered with in transit or may contain viruses or other defects. We will not be responsible for any loss arising from non-receipt of any email communication

Limitation of Liability

38. We do not accept any liability for any loss arising from non-receipt of any communication including E-mail communications.
39. In this clause we limit our liability to you. The maximum aggregate amount that we will have to pay you is $2 million unless otherwise negotiated and agreed with you. This limit applies to the extent permitted by law, whatever you are claiming for and however liability arises or might arise if not for this clause (whether in contract, tort (including negligence), equity or otherwise). We will not have to pay you more than the maximum amount for anything caused by or resulting from anything we do or do not do, or delay in doing, whether or not it is contemplated or authorised by any agreement with you.
40. If you are more than one person (such as a couple or a partnership), this maximum is the maximum combined amount that we will have to pay you together.
41. If you engage us to do work for the purposes of a business, you agree the Consumer Guarantees Act does not apply.
42. We shall not be liable for any loss or liability caused or contributed to by inaccurate or incomplete information supplied by you or third parties (including public records and expert witnesses) or because you did not receive or read a communication we sent you.

Conflicts

43. Conflicts may arise after we take initial instructions from you.
44. If a conflict of interest arises we will advise you of this and tell you how we plan to deal with the conflict. That may mean we stop working for you, the other client or both.

Accounting and Taxation and Investment Advice

45. We do not provide accounting, taxation or financial planning advice. If your matter involves a need for such advice you should consult your accountant or other relevant professional.
46. Where we are providing conveyancing services our services do not include advice in relation to the quality of any investment comprised in the property which is the subject of the conveyance. Should you wish to take advice on the quality of the investment we recommend that advice from a Registered Valuer and builder be obtained.

Storing Records

47. You authorise us to destroy all files and documents about a job seven years after that job has been completed. You also authorise us to destroy paper files or documents earlier if we have an electronic copy of them. We will not destroy any documents we have agreed to hold in safe custody for you (such as Wills).

The Lawyers' Fidelity Fund ("the Fund")

48. The Fund exists to provide compensation of up to $100,000.00 per claimant for clients who suffer a pecuniary loss in certain circumstances. These circumstances are the theft by a lawyer of money or other valuable property entrusted to that lawyer while they are providing legal services to the public or while they are acting as a solicitor-trustee.

49. It should be noted though that the Fund will not pay compensation in respect of monies instructed to be invested unless they are funds invested in a bank in New Zealand, or in some private loans such as family loans.
50. This is only a short summary of the major provisions in the Lawyers and Conveyancers Act 2006 relating to the Fund. If you would like further information please ask us.
